FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Five performing groups in the Montana State University School of Fine Arts spread over Montana like an umbrella in March to entertain a total audience of more than 32,000 persons in 48 communities from Libby to Sidney.

The tours by the Jubileers, Masquers, Opera Workshop, Band and Orchestra were made at no expense to the University, according to a report released today by Dean Luther A. Richman. Students and faculty members participating gave up their spring vacation to take music and drama to farflung Montana outposts and points between, the dean noted.
